As I am sitting here trying to think of what to say, it came to me my happiest memory of Aunt Eileen. I remember many visits as a child and then an adult, when every one would get together. Every time all the sisters got together, Aunt Eileen was always the comedian of the four sisters. I use to get such a kick out of seeing the four sisters together with Granny. I have many great memories. The one that stands out the most was all of them getting matching swim suits and then actually letting Granny take a picture of them. I have that picture and every time I see it, I still laugh. I remember Daddy calling Aunt Eileen, "Corkey". To this day I have no idea why he gave her that nick name. Aunt Eileen is now with Gary, Mommy, Daddy, Uncle Bobby, Papa & Granny. I am sure she is saying something to them right now to make them all laugh. You will be missed here on earth. Love you Virginia Mobley
