Dear Bonnie, Gene & Family, We will always remember Ryan as such a loving young man. When he was very young he gave us an angel at Christmas which we have always placed on top of our tree at Christmas. Now Ryan is among those Angels in Heaven. He will be sadly missed. Be at peace Ryan.

Ryan was one of the sweetest guys growing up. That's a lot coming from a girl who was constantly bullied by guys. He was always a good friend to me, and never bullied anyone. He always had a joke or smile to make things better. Now he can smile down on us. Prayers for your family Ryan. Thanks for always being the good guy.

Dear Ryan, i remember the day your mom and dad got the call that you were hours away from entering this world. Wow that was soo exciting. In fact, I don't recall ever seeing your mom and dad run that fast, putting their coats on, grabbing a purse, looking for the keys, all while screaming for joy and talking so fast with excitement and smiling from ear to ear. That was the moment that defined your life as well as your parents forever and i am so honored i was there to share it. Years went on and you grew up to be a fine young man, a man with honor, dignity, respect, and loyalty, which is hard to find in a man these days. I am glad that even in your adult years you remembered who i was and contacted me on Facebook where we would catch up from time to time. I enjoyed very much looking at your pictures and your posts, good and bad, about your life and chatting about our love for Duck Dynasty and of course our children. It always brought a smile to my face to see you daily and what an awesome man you have become. I will miss that Ryan and thank you for all the inspiring memories you have given me and my children! R.I.P.Love you,Jamie, Haley, and Kyle White
