My deep condolences to the family. He was such a nice man. I remember fishing with him at honeeye lake and talking about old cars with him.

Uncle Jim did love his cars. So glad that Karen and I were able to spend time with Sue and Jim this year. Who knew that would be the last time. I bet he worried about those birds outside his door to the end. I am sure they will miss his easy going nature as much as the rest of us; God bless you Sue and give Dad a hug on Saturday as he is heartbroken also. We love you. Bob and Karen
