Good evening Roi.I hope you are at peace with your surroundings.You don't really know me but you have helped me in ways you might not have imagined that you would be helping a total stranger such as myself. So I guess you could say we aren't total strangers after all.You helped me have food to eat and pay bills and put gas in my truck so thank you so much my friend.You have a beautiful family and I have no doubt they love you and miss you very much. But of course you know that already. I will be sure and look you up when I get there. Maybe you can tell me all about Montana or whatever you want to talk about buddy. Anyway again I thank you for touching my life like an invisible angel who knows what someone needs without saying a word. Guess that's what angels do huh.Your friend Jody Dunn

So sorry to say goodbye to a terrific friend. We go back to grade school days in Toledo. Great times here in Southern Calif, up at his ranch in Montana and reunions at Ottawa Hills High School. Fun days playing ice hockey and just hanging out. We will miss you dearly Roi. Lee Olsen

We have so many wonderful memories of our dear friend Roi. We loved him so much! He kept us laughing through out the 46 years of friendship that Dave had with him. We loved all his wild and crazy stories he used to tell. Dave kept in touch with him almost on a daily basis this past year. Roi visited us in the spring of 2014 and our grandson Leo fell in love with him, asking often "when is Roi coming back?" While he was here we talked of many things..reflecting on all our fun and crazy past. He shared his faith in God and was not afraid to leave this world...I know he believed in heaven.Roi will be in our hearts forever. Whenever we need a laugh Dave and I reflect on some wild and crazy experiences we had with him. He gave us so much joy and laughter even when he was going through his chemo treatments. Losing him is painful.Dave and Wanda Waldroop

I remember Roi from many years ago when I was a little girl and he and my sister's best friend were going together. I adored Roi. He let me drive his little white T-bird, or maybe I just steered but he was soooo cool. I've often thought of him over the years and wondered what happened to him, now I know. 😞
