A good man, good firefighter, someone you could count on. I worked with Ernie at station 3 on and off over the years. I was the new kid, and a WASP, as he periodically reminded me. He kept me sharp with pop-quizzes and map drills over morning coffee, and had a good handle on the history of the area. He will be missed.Capt Jon (RET)

I sit here thinking how I wish we all had one more time together, like the time of yours and Harriet's 50th anniversary. That was a real fun time. I'll miss both of yours fun loving spirits, Harriet's laugh and your strong opinion on things. Love you both. Linda
