One of my memories of Dan is how much my toddler, Alicia was so petrified of this tall, hairy man. Then Nina came along and she was madly in love with this cuddly teddy bear. Thanks to Dan and Cyndi, Cabby Shack in Plymouth will always hold special memories too.

Uncle Dan seemed like a giant and I do remember being scared. Eventually I did realize he was harmless and I was very lucky to have him as my uncle. In Nina's words, he was like Santa, but from Florida!

Bill and I were saddened to read of Dan's passing. I remember him sitting at the bar, the one he built, at Frankie's Silverado wearing his cowboy hat. I still brag about the workmanship he did when he built the round bar for us. He was a talented craftsman. We send our deepest sympathy. Pat & Bill Key, Duck Key, Fl.
