This is Polly Tindal who was your secretary back in 1986 when I retired. I wish to offer you my sincerest sympathy. I pray that you will find some peace soon. It was a pleasure to work with you and I wish I would have stayed longer. I am still in touch with Rita Lee and have seen Charles a time or two.Sincerely, Polly Tindal

Bernie, I would prefer sending a hand-written note, but---I offer my sincerest sympathy on Fran's passing. I remember her as being friendly, fun, and welcoming. The close one gets to "the end", the shorter life seems to have been. Ed has been gone over 15 years. Again, my sympathy to you and the family. Jane Iversen
