Lana, not sure if I have the right words, but, I have great memories of your dad. I will always call him Uncle Eddie. Many great times at the house house right off of Kennedy Ave. Especially the family reunion. And, who can forget the Bears games. Peace to you and the family. I can only hope we see each other soon. RIP Uncle Eddie.

Sorry for your loss. Your dad was always so kind to me. I remember he helped Amy & I when she was choking on an apple. She was too little to be eating an apple with the peel and choked. I scooped her up and ran next door and Ed saved her. He will be missed. Susan E. Orahood Gregar
