I was saddened to learn of Pat's passing. I have many memories of her from the time we were in the same group at Hackley Hospital School of Nursing, all the way through the three years there. She was outgoing, a leader, sweet, friendly and likable. I only had one person stand up with me at my wedding, and it was her, which shows you how special she was to me. I have enjoyed her Christmas letters every year, along with birthday greetings and periodic letters. She was a great friend to me. I enjoyed hearing about her quilting and other crafts. Her Christmas letter this past year did not show that there was any problem, and her handwriting was as beautiful as ever. I will greatly miss her. She leaves a tremendous gap. I will keep Leroy in my prayers. [written for Vivian Deaver by her daughter.]
