Charles Eugene Becker

JAN 19, 1931 - MAR 2, 2017

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.

It's March 2nd 2026, 9 years since you left this earth. I miss you papa & I'll always love you. I remember how you loved to woodwork on the back porch and you had your shed and you taught me to use some of your tools but wouldn't let me touch others because you wanted to protect me and didn't want me to get hurt.

You were always there everytime I needed you and I appreciate you for that to this day. I know in some way you are still here when I need you even if I don't know you're around and thank you for that too. Nana is with you now and I hope with my whole heart that you two are the happiest ever together but still know that I miss you both so much. I remember and always will how bad Nana wanted to see you again and I'm happy, really happy that she got her wish, 57 years of marriage, I know she missed you so much so enjoy your eternal life together. You both deserve it. Be happy. Laugh. Dance. Make birdhouses and show her them all, it's what you used to do and I'm sure you already have. I remember the birdhouse you were working on right before you passed away, it wasn't built all the way and you started to paint it blue; light blue, your favorite color. I thought of finishing it for you but as your obituary says "tasks left undone must stay that way, I've found that peace at the end of the day" so I left it unfinished. It was still your work, unfinished but still with beauty in its entirety. "The beginning of purpose is found in creating something only you understand." - Tyler Joseph; Twenty One Pilots I love you Papa. I'll never forget, I remember it all. Stored somewhere in my mind, every memory, every laugh, every smile, every moment, every happy one, every sad one, even the end but I'm glad you are at peace. I felt it when I visited you the last time; your peace. I remember that feeling. I was & am happy for you. Our last picture, you loved taking pictures and I'm sure you still do. Take all the pictures, build all the birdhouses and wooden cars and even more. All the wooden rocking chairs, all the peg games like the ones at Cracker Barrel. All the things that make you smile and make Nana smile too; for her and for me too. I love you both. I look forward to having a lunch with you again. Rest in Peace Papa. I'll see you again one day. Thank you for all the things you taught me and the 20 dollars everytime I got A's. Let Nana know I found that twenty one pilots shirt she got me and I cried, after years of thinking it was gone, I found it. I love you so much. I look forward to having peanut butter and Nutella sandwiches with you again one day. Sincerely, Your first great grandchild xo

8 years, I still have not forgotten you. Rest in Peace Papa. I'll never forget how much you love taking pictures, doing woodwork in your workshop, the art sale at your church and how many sales you made because people loved your art and the bird houses, the race cars and all the different things you made, the swing you made me; the pink one because that was my favorite color when I was a kid. How much you love me and how much I love you. I never forgot putting on your socks and shoes for you and visiting you in the hospital everyday in your last days. I love you. I'll see you again one day on the other side. I hope you're happy up there in heaven with Nana! She missed you so much everyday until her passing and I'm happy for you both that you are together again. Rest in peace #1 great Grampa in the world. I love you so much all the things you did; all the things you taught me, how to love, care and be kind. Thank you.
