My memories of Glenn and Helen go way back to my childhood, actually before they had children! I remember our summers spent on my grandparents' farm in Bristol. Sunday afternoons were often spent visiting back then. My parents took Rhonda and me a couple times each summer "to the lake" to visit 3 houses: Uncle John and Aunt Helen, Cousin Glenn and Helen, and Oscar and Lucille (I hated the last one because of their "toilet"!). Glenn will always be remembered by me for his wonderful smile, unusual laugh, and constant activity! He definitely inherited his Dad's good nature! May God bless the family with wonderful memories as you mourn Glenn's passing.
