Over 25 plus years I had many occasions to hire Ron and I was never dissatisfied, he was a real professional with his work. Often I would have to leave while Ron was working and I'd just say, lock up when you leave. He was so trustworthy. And then of course he always liked to chat and I always enjoyed talking with him. Ron will be missed.

We enjoyed many discussions of the history of Mount Dora and our ancestors close ties. . He enjoyed doing a good professional job while working, it was fun to try motivate him by picking on him during our travels in the van to his job sites and on the way home. No more pain and sickness to drag down his days. May he rest in peace..

I worked with Ron for well over 20 years, as his paint supplier at Glidden Paint. Ron was a loyal customer and friend. I really liked Ron and he was a craftsman in his trade. Jack Carter
