What can you say about you that has not been said already. You were always full of love and caring in terms of helping out mom when she needed it. It is so wonderful that you found love and I am sure you will be looking down at Uncle Joe and helping him as he continues on with his life. Your lives are one. You were a good woman who always had the best of intentions in whatever you did. Everybody who knew you is at a loss at your passing. Memories of you will bring us comfort until we see you again. God has blessed you in life and now you are having dinner at his house where he will serve you. Rest in peace always.

Aunt Rita, I love you so much and I miss you so much already. I am happy, though, that you are with your family and friends who have gone before you. I am so glad to have had some precious time with you this past June. I will always remember your beautiful smile and how happy you were to see me! I have so many wonderful memories of our times together over the years. The paper dolls you would bring to Patty and me when we were kids; watching you methodically put on your make up and dress to the nines for a Saturday night date; falling down the steps when I put on your high heels to emulate you; driving you around in the big, green Cadillac; the juicy pork chops you would serve from the butcher; the trips to Florida before I was married; the sound of laughter when Mom, Uncle Joe and you would get together around our kitchen table; and most of all our cherished telephone conversations over the years. We could talk for hours about everything under the sun and I enjoyed every minute of it! Aunt Rita, I am so glad you had Uncle Joe to take such good care of you! You were always caring for others and I have no doubt you are looking down on us now with great care! Until we meet again....you are forever in my heart and soul! Love Always, Terry
