Many great memories when Lloyd Elliott was principal of Orlando Christian School. He had a real passion for students to see they performed the best of their ability. He was loved and admired by all of them.

When Lloyd and Becky were getting ready to leave South Carolina I was pregnant with my daughter, Helen. One day they were both outside and Becky happened to ask me when I was due. I said November 19th. Lloyd turned, smiled, and said that's my birthday. I told him, well now I will never forget your birthday! Unfortunately she wasn't born on his birthday. She came 4 days earlier but I will never forget that day on the lawn with the Elliots! Becks my heart goes out to you. Marty, Chris, Helen, and, I are praying for you as is Grandma Sherman.

Mr Elliott had a big heart and was my favorite Principal. He helped me with learning my Bible quotes. He also taught me I learned different than others.

Oh Mr. Elliott you were the best Principal a school could have had. An excellent role model who cared wholeheartedly about all us "kids". I'll always remember you. You are loved by so many. ❤️ 👤

Mr. E as we called him at Orlando Christian School. Thank you for leading so many to become what God called ya to be. Thanks for your example showing a passion for those who don't know Christ. Unfortunately Lavonda and I will be leading a city wide crusade on Wednesday night in Kearns,Tx. Only fitting! Love you sir!!!
