Christine Louise Goldsmith

MAY 2, 1951 - FEB 6, 2022

Christine (Spivey) Goldsmith "Chris", 70 , of Leesburg passed away on Sunday, February 6th, 2022. Chris was a Central Florida native, born in Orlando, FL on May 2nd, 1951, to John and Louise Spivey. She graduated from Edgewater high school in 1969 and received her certification as a dental assistance from Southern College of Business in 1971. Chris loved reading, puzzles, and playing mahjong. Together with her husband, she enjoyed bird watching and bass fishing here locally, and trout fishing in the Smokey Mountains.

Chris is survived by her husband of 35 years, William Goldsmith, her children, Regina Liggins with her husband, Mike Liggins, Patric Alderman with his wife, Jennifer Alderman, and William Goldsmith Jr., her 8 grandchildren, Spencer, Zachary, Sarah, Faith, Zeb, Lexi, Micah, and Caleb, as well as her dog, Luse Lu.

A celebration of life ceremony will be held Saturday, February 19th, 2022 at 10:30am with a gathering of family and friends immediately following for a snack luncheon at the Lakes at Leesburg Clubhouse, 10701 US Hwy 441, Leesburg, FL 34788.

Donations in lieu of flowers may be made to the Florida Audubon Society.

Shortly after moving to Lakes at Leesburg, I broke my knee cap and couldn't put any weight on my leg for a couple of months. Chris came to visit and brought some delicious home made soup. I was so grateful for her kind generosity. That is the sort of caring person she was.
