I certainly have some fond memories of visits with Uncle Russell and Aunt Billie from my childhood (and of course with my cousins as well!), both in SC and Florida. Please know you are all in our thoughts and prayers. Love, John Ergle

I met Russell almost a year ago at the Gardens at Tavares. Usually, I saw Russell at lunch time. He would be sitting across from his wife, Billie, eating a peanut butter and jelly sandwich. I enjoyed every time I encountered him because he always told me a poem, sang a song or told me about his love for the Lord. Russell gave off sweetness and positivity. I am sure his friends and family in Heaven are having a huge celebration that Russell has arrived home. Debbie
