Brian Keith Nickelson

FEB 22, 1956 - JAN 24, 2022

Our loving Brian Keith Nickelson departs our world to an epic journey to heaven. He leaves behind a daughter, Breana and grandson Hezekiah. He was preceded in death by his son Andreas. Brian, also known as “Brean”, was born on February 22, 1956, in Philadelphia, PA to Hezekiah and Vivian Nickelson. He had one sister Juanita the oldest and five brothers. Walter, Michael, Alfred, Leslie, and Jeffrey his twin. He resided in South Philadelphia during his early childhood and later moved to West Philadelphia. He joined the United States Air Force where he did two tours of duty, August 23, 1973 to August 22, 1979 and December 11, 1981 to September 1, 1992 and received Honorable discharges respectively. He proudly served his country and was a Vietnam Veteran. Brian was the founder of Daddy’s Day Care, in North Dakota, which was one of his proudest accomplishments second to being a father to his Daughter Breana and Son Andreas and grandfather to Hezekiah. He relocated to Florida in 2016, where he lived out his retirement years playing pickel ball and was a member of a local Bowling team and was the recipient of many awards and trophies. He had a good heart and loved his family.
