Ann Marie Waldron

SEP 17, 1934 - OCT 16, 2022

Ann Waldron, 88, of Tavares, Florida, passed away suddenly in her home on October 16, 2022. Ann was born on September 17, 1934 in Portland, Michigan to Peter and Gertrude (Feldpausch) Trierweiler. She graduated from Portland High School (MI) and went on to marry and moved to Eaton Rapids, Michigan where she raised her family. She worked in the insurance business and retired from Auto-Owners after 30 years of service. She continued to live in the Eaton County area until 2006 when she moved to Florida. Even in retirement Ann stayed active and was a volunteer at the hospital for many years. She enjoyed spending time with her family in Florida and keeping in contact with all of her family and friends still in Michigan. When at home, Ann loved to stay busy and enjoyed doing jigsaw and crossword puzzles, crocheting and playing games on her computer and tablet.

Ann is survived by her three children, two sons Gordon (and Roberta) Waldron and Jeff (and Sandra) Waldron both of Eaton County, Michigan and her daughter Lori (and Mike) Crall of Florida. She leaves behind five grandchildren, Chris (and Dan) Brown, Katie (and Ryan Osborn) Youngs and Greg (and Sarah) Waldron all of Eaton County, Michigan, and Molly (and Kenny Jodon) Crall and Mindy (and Brent) Sulouff both of Lake County, Florida. She had ten beautiful great grandchildren who she adored. Delayne and Jaimie Brown, Nathan and Lucas Youngs, and Elizabeth and Bryce Waldron all of Eaton County, Michigan and Ruby and Alexander Jordon and Georgia and Autumn Sulouff of Lake County, Florida. She is also survived by her youngest sister Diana (and George) Burgoyne and two sisters-in-law, Mary Trierweiler and Prima Trierweiler. Ann was preceded in death by her sister Donna Maring and her brothers Ronald, Harold and Thomas Trierweiler.
