I'd like to pass on my sincere condolences to Kevin's family. I have many fond memories of my time spent with him. I wish I had done a better job of keeping in touch. My son Adam and were at a Chargers football game early this past NFL season when they had a half time tribute to the military. My son and I both wept with joy because it made us both remember my homecoming from a deployment. This homecoming was made possible by Kevin who took time off from work to pick up my kids and bring them to the base to meet the ship. This is probably the kindest, most selfless act that anyone has done for me. After that game, I attempted to contact Kevin to let him know how much that meant to me. Unfortunately, I was not able to find him in time. The next best thing is to let his family know what a kind and considerate man he was. I wish you all the best.Dana##imported-begin##Dana Olson##imported-end##

I have been proud & honored to be able to call Kevin "Fitz" my friend & buddy for 47-48 years, since the 7th grade, I think. Although we had been disconnected a couple of times over the years, whenever we reconnected, it was like we never were disconnected. Kevin was a generous, outgoing person, always ready to help out anyone with a need. He could walk into a room of strangers, leaving with many new friends. His work ethic was very strong, giving his utmost to anything he took on.As awkward teenagers, we got into all the normal things we shouldn't have. But no matter what our situation, no matter how happy or upset we may have been at the moment, we knew after all was said and done, we were buddies for life.I will miss "Fitz" more than I can say. Just knowing he was at the other end of a phone call meant a awful lot.Lynn & Kevin, My heartfelt sympathy goes out to you. You both are in my thoughts & prayers daily.God bless, Keith##imported-begin##Keith Henney##imported-end##

May the Lord bless all who meet here to pay our respects:Kevin was a fantastic person and a very hard worker. I was saddened when he left the company, but I followed him and I bought pool supplies from his store. Kevin and I were both veterans...another thing we shared. I extend my condolences to family and friends.God Bless,Chuck Matthews, SPHRCorporate Director, HRG&T Conveyor Co., Inc.##imported-begin##Chuck Matthews##imported-end##
