I wrote on here Saturday right after I got off the phone with Don & Donnie. I don't why my post didn't take or where my it went? I hope this hasn't happened to others. I wrote: I remember the first time I met Janet. I was just a kid and my parents took me with them to visit her family on their farm back of Hannibal. Janet's mom was a wonderful cook and after a delicious meal, Janet asked my if I wanted to play. She led my upstairs to a bedroom where there were several large boxes filled with clothes, high heels, and jewelry. We played dress up together for hours. I had so much fun with her, and felt I had found a great new friend. Janet was a year behind me in high school. Janet was on the quiet side, very sweet, but she had a really good sense of humor. I always thought she was one of the prettiest girls in school. I know she will be deeply missed by everyone who truly knew her. My thoughts and prayers go out to her family.##imported-begin##Jeanie Simcox##imported-end##
