Hello Myrtle: Just found out about Walter's passing. I was really shocked as I don't get a newspaper. I saw you at the hospital a while ago and just didn't realize he was ill. I have always liked you both since the first time we met at Weight Watchers. I wanted you to know that you are in my prayers and I will be thinking of you. Call me sometime. My prayers go out to you and your family. Molly Horton##imported-begin##Molly Horton##imported-end##

This world has lost a truly great and admired man. Although his light has dimmed here I am sure heaven is a much brighter and jovial place with his arrival. I will always remember Walt as the person that always had a story to tell, never met a person he didn't know, and most of all the person who was always made sure my Aunt Myrtle was cared for. He loved her dearly and I never worried about her as long as he was there. My heart goes out to all his family and loved ones. Though things will never be the same lets just thank God for all the great memories. Love to the family. Rick and Terri Sunday and Family##imported-begin##Rick Sunday##imported-end##
