Hello Uncle Scotty I have been wanting to make amends for events that have occurred so long in the past. I thought I had plenty of time. I was wrong. I need to apologize for my bad behavior, my anger, and for cutting you out of my life. Now that you are gone to a better place what can I say that would make a difference? I am sorry that I could not work up the courage to make this amends to you while you were still here. I hope you can forgive me for keep you at a distance, for not forgiving you, for having a resentment. You have been someone that I respect from a distance. You were you in all that you did. Please just think of me a little and know I am so sorry I could not talk to you about this when you were here. Peace Hope and Charity God Bless you. Teddy...He was such a kind, loving and forgiving man. Knowing him, I am sure that he didn't hold anything against you. He only spoke good things about his family. He loved with arms wide open and an even bigger heart. I too have regrets about distance with my own father, but we can only move forward and love on those we have here. Forgive yourself and know that he is smiling down on you.. that's just the kind of man he was. He taught me a lot in that respect. Love and hugs, Michelle (Carol's daughter)

Dear Carol, My thoughts and prayers are with you. Scott will be sadly missed. One of the first memories I have of Scott was when he came to visit our mother and he was around 17 or 18. I was only 5 or 6. He seemed so tall and good looking. His hair was like Elvis Presley. He was always so good at keeping in touch for birthdays and holidays. We always had such good intentions of having family reunions. However, life is busy and time goes by. Please keep in touch even if its just an email once or twice a year. Im so glad your daughter Michelle is there as well as your church family to comfort you. Take care. Love your sister in law, Peggy##imported-begin##PEGGY WIMMER##imported-end##

Carol....I'm so sorry to hear about Scott. I am glad i got to see you and Scott in Duluth two years ago. I was thinking about coming to see you guys this winter to get away from the cold of Minnesota. I posted the obituary in the Bemidji Pioneer. It will be printed on Friday, thanks for thinking of me when you had so much to take care of. Love, ed coyle##imported-begin##ed coyle##imported-end##
