Pam was a great friend, we had so much fun together. We had cook outs, played cards, bon fires, bar hopping and hog riding behind our husbands!She was also deep and down to Earth during hard times and shoulder crying. We listened to each other tell of our woes and cheered our selves up with an old song and hugs and laughter. I loved her voice and laughter. The Lord may have called her home unexpectedly early but, I'm so looking forward to seeing her in heaven. Ride free my sister- I love you!!!!

I have so many memories of Pam whether it was sneaking in and out of her house to watching her watch titan play in the basement of her house. There was never a dull moment. Especially one night when she about knocked out some guy for wrecking her bike. She was and is the total package and I will miss her smile. Even though I haven't got to see her much since she moved to Florida I will cherish the memories I have.

I will never forget the night I met Bob and you and Keith were with me, Bob and I dated for 6 months but never alone you and Keith would hide in my car and were always with us the first night we had alone was our wedding night. but you know what I would do it all over again if I could turn back the time to then, I was not able to be with you when you had your first 2 babies but I was there when you had Debi you were afraid to tell me you were going to have another baby because Bob and I had been trying but with no luck you let me take Debi when ever I wanted to and I love that. I have so many wonderful memories of our lives but I will save room for others to share too. I love you Pamela Sue and miss you so much
