I am seldom at a loss for words, but right now I keep searching for just the right thing to say to give comfort to Mary, Julie, John, Barb and their families. We have been both friends and family to one another. We raised our four little stair steps together, as cousins, not just friends. We love each other's children and grandchildren as we love our own. We were very close for 50 years. Then, life got complicated and we went our separate ways. But the love never ended although our relationship changed. John is in Heaven with our Jonnie now. May we all take comfort in the thought that they are together, watching over us all. RIP "Uncle John". You will be missed by many.
