April Stoffel posted:

I always looked forward to the weekends when I was a child. We would all gather at Papa Bob's and Nana Donna's house and while Nana cooked Papa and the guys played the most beautiful bluegrass music. The Phipps girls would sing, nana would join in, there was just love and happiness in these times. There was singing, dancing, food, family and just all around good times. I'll cherish these moments forever and smile whenever I hear that wonderful music play.
