Jayne and I connected in 1997 online when we were building our homes in Royal Harbor...faxing carpet and paint color samples to each other. When we finally met in 2002, we were instant friends sharing and laughing together, close and far. You were my favorite line dance teacher, a fun and trusted friend and finally, a much-loved little sister. Though you have left us, I feel your presence in every cherished memory. Love until we meet again! Your bestie, Jacqueline Muma
