To Our "Princess" Mother , As I have told you many times in our lives together: If God had placed all the Mothers before me and said "Choose the One you want " , I would have chosen You. You were a very wonderful Mother and and always there for us . You were truly a Precious Blessing and Gift from God ! I will Always love you in my heart and know we will be with you again in Heaven. Love Forever, Your Daughter ,Nlna.

"Mom-ma" She was always happy, She was always meek. To be assured that we are content Was the one thing she did seek. She gave hugs like a mother, Kept secrets like a friend. When our hearts were broken, She hugged us and talked to us Helping them to mend. She put others first, Gave wisdom untold. Her encouraging words Were as priceless, solid gold. As the wife of a soldier, She stood firm and strong. She worked hard and was happy Her whole life long. I know she is in Heaven In her mansion right now. She's singing with angels and Jesus in the clouds. By Lauren Higginbotham
