“ James and I were privileged to attend the funeral service honoring Betty Grainger. Unfortunately for us, we did not get to know her as well as we would have liked. We do know she was a woman of strong faith and strong convictions. We honor her for that. We are fortunate to be blessed by some of the fruits of her labor, her daughter Jody and her grandson Clinton, who is our precious son-in-law. We thank you and love you Grandma Grainger. “ For twenty years we shared holidays together, visited your house by the lake, and talked about memories of Clinton before I met him. I am grateful you were able to meet Wesley James, your great-grandson, who was named in honor of your late-husband and Clint's grandfather, James Grainger. We can't wait to share memories of you both with Wesley, so don't worry, he will know his great-grandparents through the stories we will tell him.

“ Mom, you were greatly loved. I can't believe you are gone but I know you are with our God in paradise. Until we meet again. I love you forever.

“ Grandma, I hope your last moments were awash with the feeling of pure love and good memories. I hope you took those with you to the next place. We are all traveler's and a traveler's home is behind their eyes. I hope you used every good thing, every beautiful moment and left all the negative stuff you didn't need. Always remember we love you and if there is a place where we can be together again we will.

Love,

Clinton, Katheryn, and Wes
