“ I have no words to describe what it has meant all these years to have Bryant as a close friend. When the rest of the world turned away, he was always right there to let me know he had my back. I will never forget him, and I wish comfort for Lorraine, Jason and the rest of his family.

Fly west, my friend, your pain is over and it's clear skies ahead.

“ Bryant was my nephew and a good friend. We will miss him for sure. We are sad for us and his family and friends, especially for Lorraine, Jason, his Mother Rosemary and his brother Ray. Bryant was a good man, husband, father, grandpa, son, brother, nephew and friend and pilot. Being a pilot was his goal and he was the best, which he proved when he was able to save his crew and himself when they all survived a terrible plane accident, which was a miracle--a blessing from God and his expertise. He loved life, had a wonderful sense of humor, laughed all the time, and his sense of humor made all of us laugh!! He was a joy to be around. His accomplishments were numerous and amazing. He loved God and told me while he was going through the accident, God was on the dashboard leading him on through the whole ordeal. He experienced a real miracle!! Bryant suffered through so much pain, but he was a real trooper. He is at peace now with no more suffering for which we are thankful. Love to all of Bryant's family and friends.
