“ I met Mrs Keeter- as she will always be to me-in the mid 1980s when her daughter Judi brought me down to Orlando for a visit from Ft Polk Louisiana where we were both stationed. She and her husband aka Blobs were so kind and hospitable to me. She flashed that gorgeous smile and had that melted butter soft southern accent. They both immediately made me part of the family and I will never forget how special that felt. Some of her Nancy-isms will always be with us... especially when Judi and I drink our coffee and chat. God bless and keep her and love to the family. Heaven watch out—she’s coming’ in hot!
