

Warren Roger Saxton

November 25, 1950 - March 12, 2018

Warren Roger Saxton at the age of 67, went to be with the Lord on Monday, March 12, 2018. He was born on November 25, 1950 in Elkton, Maryland. His adoptive parents were the late Vernon and Goldie Saxton, his sisters; Goldie Bailey and Florence "Dot" Reed, brothers; Walter Johnson and Donald Johnson. His children are his faithful son, Bradley Saxton; his devoted daughter Cassandra Hawkins and her husband Kyle Hawkins; his son Brian Saxton, stepdaughter Melissa Wagster, and his late stepson Neal Perzynski. He has left behind grandchildren; Nicholas Hawkins, Amirah Rana, Summer Wagster, Samantha Wagster, Aisin Wagster, Matthew Saxton, Shelby Saxton, Zacharee Saxton, Emma Saxton, and Aiden Saxton as well as aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Warren was a very kind and loving gentleman who always had a smile on his face, he would give you the clothes off his back if he could. He loved his family, animals, history, football, collecting stamps/sports cards/coins, and technology. He went to Lake-Sumter State College where he had received a degree in IT while caring for his late wife, Janice Saxton. His love for football was shared with his son Brad. Warren loved to play Fantasy Football with his son whenever he could, while watching the big games on TV. His favorite team was the Seattle Seahawks. Warren was a meticulous collector and he enjoyed the time he spent gathering all his favorite things, everything was labeled, dated, and in protective covers. If you could see his collections, you could picture him sitting with his magnifying glass and books looking over all the intricate details and reading the history behind each item, with a big smile on his face.

He will be greatly missed by his family.

A celebration of life gathering will be held at Hurricanes Dockside Grill in Tavares at 5PM on March 22, 2018. To attend please contact Cassandra Hawkins.

God looked around his garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put His arms around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew that you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your weary eyelids And whispered "Peace be thine."

Comments

“ Warren was one of my very best friends. We played sports together in the 70's. I knew him by his nickname, Buddy. We were friends long after his sons were born. He was to be my best man at my wedding in 1989. After he re-married we lost contact and I'm very saddened to hear of his passing. Warren (Buddy to me) was a true gentleman and friend. Sorry we never re-connected before he passed. He will be missed!

David Strong
dave.a_strong@yahoo.com

David Strong - June 02, 2020 at 01:37 AM

“ Our brother Warren:
As soon as we heard your voice, we knew you were our brother. We couldn't wait to see you in person, meet your family and share information. Although we were not able to get answers to all of our questions, it didn't matter. You are one of us! From that point forward we shared a lot of memories (some were captured in pictures), most are in our hearts to treasure forever! We will always miss your smile (which was contagious) and the loving way you cared about all of your family. You were truly blessed. We will miss you always. RIP our brother. Until we meet again in Heaven.

Goldie Bailey - March 21, 2018 at 10:26 AM

“ Healing Tears - Blue and White was purchased for the family of Warren Roger Saxton.

March 20, 2018 at 01:21 PM